

Fair Test Variables Question Cards

1 What is the independent variable in this investigation?

2 What is the dependent variable in this investigation?

3 What are the control variables in this investigation?

4 How will you keep this test fair?

- _____
- _____
- _____

5 What will you change in this investigation?

6 What will you measure or observe?

7 What will you keep the same?

8 Why is it important to keep it a fair test?

9 Give an example of a control variable for this investigation.

10 What could make your results unreliable?

11 How could you improve this investigation?

12 How will you repeat your test to make your results better?

A fair test changes one thing at a time and keeps everything else the same.