

RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES SCENARIO CARDS

Read each scenario. Discuss or write:

1. Which rights are involved?

2. What responsibilities apply?

3. What could you do?

1

A classmate shares personal information about you online without asking.

Rights?

Responsibilities?

What could you do?

2

You want to express your opinion in class, but others keep talking over you.

Rights?

Responsibilities?

What could you do?

3

Your group is working on a project. One person isn't contributing, but takes credit.

Rights?

Responsibilities?

What could you do?

4

A school plans to search your bag without telling you why.

Rights?

Responsibilities?

What could you do?

5

A new student uses a wheelchair. The school can't access some classrooms.

Rights?

Responsibilities?

What could you do?

6

You see bullying happening in the hallway.

Rights?

Responsibilities?

What could you do?

7

You have the right to time off when you're unwell, but you have a test.

Rights?

Responsibilities?

What could you do?

8

The school is making a decision that affects students, but you weren't asked for input.

Rights?

Responsibilities?

What could you do?

9

You want to wear clothing that reflects your culture, but the uniform policy says you cannot.

Rights?

Responsibilities?

What could you do?

10

A teacher asks you to hand in your phone for the entire term.

Rights?

Responsibilities?

What could you do?

11

You broke a school rule. You are given a consequence you think is unfair.

Rights?

Responsibilities?

What could you do?

12

Your class is organising a fundraiser for a cause you care about.

Rights?

Responsibilities?

What could you do?

