

Push and Pull Factors Scenario Cards

Read each situation. Decide which are PUSH factors, which are PULL factors, or both. Be ready to explain your answer.

- 1 A long drought has made it hard to grow food.

Which are PUSH factors, PULL factors, or both?

- 2 There are more jobs and better pay in the city.

Which are PUSH factors, PULL factors, or both?

- 3 Violence and conflict are happening in their country.

Which are PUSH factors, PULL factors, or both?

- 4 A nearby country offers free education.

Which are PUSH factors, PULL factors, or both?

- 5 Rising sea levels are flooding their homes.

Which are PUSH factors, PULL factors, or both?

- 6 They want to be closer to family members.

Which are PUSH factors, PULL factors, or both?

- 7 There is no access to clean water in their village.

Which are PUSH factors, PULL factors, or both?

- 8 A country offers safety and political freedom.

Which are PUSH factors, PULL factors, or both?

- 9 Farmland has become poor and unproductive.

Which are PUSH factors, PULL factors, or both?

- 10 There are more hospitals and better healthcare.

Which are PUSH factors, PULL factors, or both?

- 11 Extreme storms are destroying homes.

Which are PUSH factors, PULL factors, or both?

- 12 Someone wants to experience a new culture and adventure.

Which are PUSH factors, PULL factors, or both?